The application fee (SEK 3,400) will be deposited in the Swedish Inspectorate of Auditors' bank giro no. 5151-2887 in conjunction with submitting the application.

This form must be personally signed by a certified signatory for the firm and sent to the Swedish Inspectorate of Auditors by post or e-mail (ri@revisorsinspektionen.se) along with the following enclosures:

1.A An applicant that is a limited company, and other limited companies that are included in the same ownership structure as the applicant, shall enclose:

1.B An applicant that is a trading partnership, and trading partnerships that are included in the same ownership structure as the applicant, shall enclose:

I. Certificate of incorporation (no more than three months old)

I. Registration certificate (no more than three months old)

II. Articles of association

II. Articles of partnership

III. Share register

III. The latest prepared annual accounts

IV. Latest adopted annual report

2. An organisational chart that provides the entire ownership structure/Group in which the applying firm of auditors is included. From the chart, it should be evident what physical/legal persons are partners in the firm and whether the firm in turn is a partner in another company. The same applies to all companies that are included in the same ownership structure/Group. The participating interest should be provided in per cent (for limited companies, the percentage of the number of votes for all shares is also provided).

3. Copy of current certificate of insurance. The conditions of insurance must be in line with Section 15-16 of Revisorsinspektionens' [the Swedish Inspectorate of Auditors] regulations (RIFS 2018:2) regarding conditions for the activities of auditors and registered public accounting firms.
